

ARLINGTON COUNTY CRIME SOLVERS

703-522-TIPS (8477)

or

800-673-2777

---

24-HOURS A DAY • REWARDS UP TO $1,000

---

WANTED FOR BANK ROBBERY

ARLINGTON, Va.—June 30, 2003—The Arlington County Police Department is currently investigating a bank robbery that occurred at approximately 1:00 p.m. on Friday, June 27 at the First Union Bank located at 1300 Wilson Blvd. in Arlington. A lone male suspect, pictured at right, approached the teller and produced a demand note advising of the robbery. The teller gave the suspect an undetermined amount of cash, and the suspect then exited the bank.

The suspect is described as a white male, 40-50, slim build, approximately 5'10"-6'0", gray hair, wearing a dark baseball cap with a red logo, dark sunglasses, blue jeans and a light colored shirt.

Anyone with information about this robbery is asked to call Arlington County Crime Solvers at 800-673-2777, Detective Kevin Norwood of the Homicide/Robbery Unit at 703-228-4194, or the FBI Washington Field Office at 202-278-2360. Crime Solvers is offering a reward of up to $1,000 for information leading to the arrest of this suspect. Callers to Crime Solvers remain anonymous and do not need to testify in court.

-30-

MEDIA CONTACTS: Matt Martin, 703-228-4311
Public Information Office

Det. John Ritter, 703-228-4331
Public Information Office/Crime Solvers